There's a revolutionary new way for students to see Historic Philadelphia - The Constitutional Walking Tour of Philadelphia.

The Constitutional tells the dramatic story of the brave men and women who were responsible for creating America. Step back in time to see where The Declaration of Independence and The United States Constitution were created in America's Most Historic Square Mile.

The Constitutional guides you through the Independence National Historical Park area by connecting the buildings and places where the events of the American Revolution transpired.

The Constitutional Guided Walking Tour features energetic and articulate tour guides who bring Philadelphia's rich history to life along a 1.25 mile, 75-minute guided adventure, featuring more than 20 historic sites.

Along the way, you'll see sites including the Liberty Bell, Independence Hall, the Betsy Ross House, Franklin Court and the National Constitution Center.

Since 2003, The Constitutional has been one of Philadelphia's Top 25 Tourist Attractions, as ranked by the Philadelphia Business Journal, and its tours have won widespread critical acclaim.

Guided tours for schools, student groups, and youth groups as well as camp groups can be arranged for almost anytime - weekday or weekend, day or evening. The Constitutional can accommodate student groups of any size, and can provide multiple guides for an entertaining and educational tour.

The Constitutional Walking Tour is appropriate for all ages. Additionally, The Constitutional's education team can assist you in integrating the tour into your academic curriculum, including annual Constitution Day programming on September 17th.

The Constitutional also offers a combination Field Trip package with the National Constitution Center so student groups can experience the Constitution Center either before or after taking The Constitutional Walking Tour.

The Constitutional can offer tours in various languages with advance notice and additional fees.

Additionally, The Constitutional can also arrange professionally trained Step-on Guides for your motorcoach. Discounted group rates are available.

If you are planning a trip to the America's Birthplace, let The Constitutional be your guide to see history living side by side with a vibrant 21st Century city.
